Youngster Celebrates Birthday

Jay Clotworthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clotworthy, 2410 Ridgeland Rd., celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary with a party Thursday. Throwing bean bags at a clown, playing other games and eating cake and ice cream were Michael and Sharon De-Contreas, Skipper and Mary Fuller, Charlotte and Pat McCoy, Rob Dies, Debbie Cannon, Bobby and Julie Valerie, Michael and Mary Ann Martin, Scotty Salisbury, Candace McCann, Charly Steinbraner, Mary Beth Webber, Billy Davidson, Cheryl Koziol, Jesse Gonzalez and Tommy Caswell. The young honoree also was celebrating his first week of attending kindergarten.

Dining Area Set to Open

Coincident with the disclosure that the new special occasion room at the Marineland Restaurant will be named "The Penguin Room" is the announcement that owner George Foster is already booking private parties for the new dining area that officially opens next week. "The Penguin Room," accommodating groups from 25 to 75, is ideal for stand-up cocktail gatherings or sit-down meetings. Indications are that the private function room, overlooking the ocean and affording a panoramic view of the seacoast, will be sparkling with all kinds of social activities and business parties during the coming months.

BISHOPS HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bishop opened their home at 3341 Opal St. Sunday to members of the official city family. Served refreshments in the patio were members of the city council, planning commission and department heads.

SWIMMING PARTY

A swimming party in the Mayfair Hotel pool will precede the Sept. 28 luncheon meeting of the Los Angeles Chapter, National Association of Railway Business Women, 1 p.m. in the hotel's Rainbow Isle Room.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

Evelyn Carr

The first fall meeting of the Evelyn Carr Elementary PTA Executive Board was called to order Sept. 4, at the school. Members of the board introduced themselves and the new chairman were ratified by the board. Richard Welte, principal, introduced the new vice-principal, Mr. Donald Credell. Minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Ralph Gastelum read a letter from Mayor Albert Ison concerning the bond election to be held on Oct. 29, 1957. The program for the 1957-58 year was read by the president, Mrs. Roland Stamm. Mrs. Stamm also read the proposed budget for the year and corrections and suggestions were made. Mrs. John Regan requested the Evelyn Carr PTA sponsor an adult square dance group. A committee consisting of Mrs. Roy Jackson, chairman, Mrs. John Maxwell and Mrs. Norman Wilson, was appointed to study the matter. A report on the Dental Health Assn. was given by Mrs. Eugene Brown. A program meeting was held recently at the Evelyn Carr Elementary School. Those present were Richard Welte, principal; Al Nocciola, vice principal; Mrs. Roland Stamm, president; Mrs. C. Ross and Mrs. W. Freese. A meeting of the finance and budget committee was held on Aug. 30 at the school to discuss finances for the coming year. Present at the meeting were Richard Welte, principal; Donald Credell, the new vice principal; Mrs. R. Stamm, president; Mrs. Merle Love, Mrs. Jean Vance, Mrs. J. Cunerty, Mrs. James Hunter, Mrs. Robert Dennis, Mrs. Paul Schade and Mrs. Perry Baker. Expenses for the coming year were presented and a proposed budget will be presented to the association along with plans for a money-making activity, an annual Country Fair, to be held at the school Friday, Oct. 25.

Anza

The Anza PTA has been busy getting ready for the new school term. On July 26, Mrs. Gordon Stephens, president of the PTA met with the Carnival Committee to start making plans for the Carnival that will be held on Oct. 31. On Aug. 13, the program committee met and finished their plans for this coming year. The Budget Committee has completed their plans with their last meeting held on Aug. 19. The membership committee has chosen, "Space Ship to the Moon," for their theme and, "Shoot for the Moon," as their slogan. The membership drive will start Oct. 1 and end on Oct. 16. They will strive for a hundred per cent membership.

223rd St.

September has been a busy month for the officials of the 223rd St. School and its PTA organization as they have prepared for the coming school year by attending meetings—one for principals and presidents at the 87th St. School, and one for the officers and chairmen of the PTA board at the Stephen White School. The 223rd St. School was represented by Mrs. Eleanor Kennedy, principal, and Charles Gustafson, vice principal, and the PTA was represented by Mrs. Francis Anani, president, and Mrs. Fred H. Hovey, school education chairman, at the principals' presidents' meeting. Six officers and chairmen attended the School of Inform held at Stephen White School. Recently, the 223rd St. School completed its 100th school program for the year and is now being prepared for the new fall session which began Sept. 16. Four members of the 223rd Street School PTA, Mrs. Paul Kelson, Edward Kollmeyer, George Lamontagne and Gene Lelroy helped serve watermelon to the children on the last day of the playground program, climaxing several weeks of a program of crafts, movies, folk dancing and other projects, which were under the leadership of Mrs. Barbara Poulson, one of the teachers of 223rd Street School. On the first day of school, members of the school PTA were present to register those who were unable to come in the week before school begins.

Sepulveda

Plans are under way for Sepulveda elementary school's first carnival which will be held on Oct. 28 at the school. Under the leadership of Mrs. John Carrievau, ways and means committee chairman, details were discussed regarding the games and booths which will be found throughout the carnival. The food committee chairman will be Mrs. Albert Yackie. One of the highlights of the October carnival will be the Halloween costume dress parade which will be held for children of all school ages who care to participate. The committee members who attended the recent ways and means meeting, in addition to Chairman Mrs. Carrievau, were Mrs. Robert Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Holden; Mrs. Gerald Creager; Mrs. Robert Meyers, Mr. Robert Dexter, principal and Mrs. Albert Yackie.

Seaside

Seaside PTA board held a luncheon recently to welcome the teachers back to school. Name tags in the shape of an apple helped them find their places at the tables. These were made by C. A. Hall, art chairman. The faculty, including 11 new teachers, were welcomed by Lloyd Jones, principal. Mrs. Clyde Miller, PTA president, introduced the board members who prepared and served the luncheon. They were: Mrs. Merle Unger, Mrs. Ken Daniels, Mrs. Horace Radney, Mrs. Melvin Shrader, Mrs. Clyde Haslet, Mrs. C. A. Hall, Mrs. John Mallory and Mrs. James Mason, chairman of the event.

Gardena

Membership committee of the Gardena High School PTA met recently for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Cowles, president, to discuss plans for the membership drive which begins Oct. 4. Committee members attending were Mrs. A. B. Pond, R. R. James, Dean Carter, Floyd Beech and Messrs. Sid Brickman and Norman Shultz.

S. M. White

Members of Stephen M. White PTA will hear a panel discussion Oct. 15, 2 p.m. at the Stephan M. White Hall. Theme for the group's first meeting is "Building Through Guidance." Panelists will be Mrs. Ruth Ervin, Robert Wulfin and Mrs. Ina Gyllenswan.
